

Public Art Commission Recommendations
for 13th Annual Art Around the Corner Exhibit

The jury for the 2009-2010 Art Around the Corner (AATC) Exhibition consisted of four Ames residents. Our jurors were Pat Brown (State Farm Insurance), Sally Hawkins (Graphic Designer, Iowa State Center), Kevin Stow (ISU Foundation), and Beth Weninger (Education Director, Octagon). The jury met and made their decisions on January 29, 2009. Two additional selections were made as alternates if availability of the 6 sculptures changes before installation.

Listed below are the six selections made for the 2009-2010 Art Around the Corner sculpture exhibit. Photographs showing these sculptures will be at an upcoming the City Council meeting.

Rotation and installation of the exhibit will take place during late April and early May, after consultation with businesses and organizations near the likely sites. The installation process will be coordinated through the City Manager's Office. The Best-in-Show award will be made to a winner to be determined by the public at a Fall citywide arts event.
