Memo

Mayor's Office

TO: Members of the City Council

FROM: Ann H. Campbell, Mayor

DATE: January 7, 2011

SUBJECT: Appointment to Fill Vacancies on Public Art Commission

Chris Betts and Hanna Shiplett, members of the Public Art Commission, have submitted their resignations from the Commission. Since their terms of office have not expired, appointments need to be made to fill these vacancies.

Therefore, I request that the City Council approve the appointments of Arthur Baumgartner and Susan Norris to fill the unexpired terms of office on the Public Art Commission.

preferences:

I wish to be appointed to the Public Art Commission, as recommended by a coworker, Samuel Stagg.

qualifications:

Having a background in studio art and architecture, I have a unique perspective on the artistic process and how it engages the general public. As an artist I am keenly aware of current trends in art as they relate to politics, societal issues, pop culture, and social media. My training as an architect has allowed me to view these issues in a whole new light; as they relate to the built environment.

reasons:

I have always had a great appreciation for public art and artists, but as my family and I have settled this last year in Ames, I no longer wish to be only a spectator, but actively engage in the dialog of public art.

Public Art

qualifications:

I have lived in Ames 22 years and worked as an art teacher in the community for 19. I have served on committees at the Octagon and served on the Public Art Commission in the 1990s.

reasons:

I am interested in the education aspect of the PAC. I was invited to several meetings of the education committee of the PAC last year.
