PUBLIC FORUM: Mayor Haila opened Public Forum.

Merlin Pfannkuch, 1424 Kellogg Avenue, Ames, suggested that Council get aggressive with planning a new aquatic facility. He said the people of Ames are getting shorted of amenities while the industrial interests are being developed. Mr. Pfannkuch said incentives have been approved without consideration of the big picture and the overall financial situation.

Mayor Haila closed the Public Forum after no one else came forward to speak.

STAFF REPORT REGARDING INCENTIVES TO CONVERT RENTAL UNITS BACK TO OWNER-OCCUPIED HOUSING: Planning Director Kelly Diekmann reviewed the staff report response regarding the request from City Council to research options for incentives directed towards the conversion of single-family dwellings from rental properties to home ownership. He said staff has divided the topic into four issues to focus the discussion on defining goals for an incentive program. One of the issues intended to be addressed by incentivizing the conversion of properties is the condition of the home and its desirability as an owner-occupied home as opposed to a rental home. Rental properties may have been modified to increase bedrooms or create different entrances; these modifications affect the flow and layout of a floor plan and do not work well for other household types.

Mr. Diekmann said if Council pursued a program to rehabilitate former rental properties, the program could either provide reimbursement for rehabilitation work, support the acquisition of former rental properties through down payment or closing cost assistance to the buyers, or purchase former rentals directly, then sell them to new owners. The next issue is the form of funding for the program. Whether used for acquisition or rehabilitation, the incentive can be offered as a grant or a loan. In either case, continued funding by the City is required to support a program long-term if no revenue is generated from prior investments. He reviewed the pros and cons of loans and grants.

The third issue is the source of the incentives. Mr. Diekmann said the options are a Property Tax Abatement for improvements made to a property within an Urban Revitalization Area, HOME/CDBG funding, and City funding. Household eligibility was the fourth issue that was reviewed. Mr. Diekmann advised Council that the use of federal funds will limit benefits to low- and moderate-income (LMI) households. To move forward with creating an incentive-based housing conversion program, City Council would need to identify the goals for the incentive program and provide direction regarding the four issues discussed. He said staff believes that, if this program were to move forward, it should be targeted to areas where there is an imbalance in ownership and rental properties. Targeting resources to specific areas would likely make the most appreciable difference in housing conditions compared to a distributed city-wide program.

Council Member Betcher asked what happens after an incentive is given. Mr. Diekmann said most examples required some element of length of stay by the buyer that is tied to the value of the incentive. Deed restrictions stay with the property and would be an option for the program as well.

Council Member Beatty-Hansen said the homes that will be available first will be the ones that could be targeted for LMI for use of the federal dollars. Then if that works, staff could potentially expand it in the future to market-rate homes too. Council Member Corrieri said she is more interested in the affordability piece. She said she is concerned about the number of homeowners who are able to qualify to purchase a home. She said she would like to target affordable properties, but maybe make the income guidelines different if the program was self-funded. Council Member Betcher said she would like to see the other component to convert rentals back to owner-occupied homes in near-campus neighborhoods as she thinks stability is more important than affordability. Ms. Corrieri clarified that affordability in targeted neighborhoods is what she meant, not necessarily a city-wide program.

Council Member Martin said he loves the idea that there might be a number of smaller homes that may not be affordable under certain guidelines, but are still an important end of the market. If staff could institute a market to convert the smaller rental homes back to owner-occupied, they could see how much interest and how effective the program is. Ms. Beatty-Hansen said if they start with the affordable LMI target, they could use federal and City funds. Mr. Martin said that some of the smaller homes are easier to switch between renter occupants and owner-occupied simply because a smaller house wouldn't be split up. Council Member Gartin asked if it should matter that the context right now is that rent affordability is decreasing dramatically. He said the reason for all of these conversions to rentals was because the University added 10,000 students in a short amount of time and the market responded with more multi-family units. He suggested that if a landlord can't find renters for a house, economic incentives would be available to convert it back to owner-occupied. Mr. Gartin asked how staff would decide who gets the opportunities. Ms. Corrieri said there would be an application process like any other program that the City offers.

City Council Member Nelson said some units haven't been maintained as well and this will provide that incentive for people to be able to make those changes as the houses turn over. Ms. Beatty-Hansen said it's the best time to offer incentives to convert; if they don't, the rent would be lowered with no incentive to sell it back to be owner-occupied. Mr. Nelson said he is interested in having the two different programs that address the two issues related to rental housing. Ms. Baker-Latimer, Housing Coordinator, said as part of the Consolidated Plan, an online survey and a paper survey will be launched on October 28, 2019, which hasn't been done since 2015-16. Mayor Haila asked Mr. Diekmann if the discussions from Council are independent programs. Mr. Diekmann said operating a program that is not geared toward affordable housing should not be blended with federal funds because then the federal rules apply to all of the funds in the program. Ms. Beatty-Hansen said they won't be able to do a lot of homes in a year, but if they focus on the near-Campus neighborhoods, they could also include the affordable ones too. Ms. Betcher said as the guidelines are developed, priority could be given to homes in the specific neighborhoods, but the affordable part can be city-wide.

Moved by Beatty-Hansen, seconded by Corrieri, to explore two programs: one targeting affordable housing and one to be able to convert rental housing back into owner-occupied in targeted areas with the targeted areas to be suggested by staff.

Vote on Motion: 6-0. Motion declared carried unanimously.

Mayor Haila advised Council to discuss the issues as they were laid out. Mr. Diekmann said staff's involvement in the rehabilitation process is time-intensive and there will be an element of cost that will need to be brought back to Council. Ms. Baker-Latimer said they have tried similar programs on a smaller scale. Ms. Corrieri asked if the program is as labor-intensive if the City is providing grant money for the property owner to rehab and then sell it as an owner-occupied property rather than the City doing the rehabilitation and resale. Ms. Beatty-Hansen said that providing reimbursement to the landlord would likely only work for the market-rate houses, but the affordable purchases would be a simpler process for staff to be involved in. Mr. Nelson asked if down payment assistance is the most helpful in the situation that the City is handling the rehab and sale. Ms. Baker-Latimer said the down payment assistance is the biggest gap. Ms. Corrieri said she is not advocating for the City to purchase properties. She said the City either would provide funding to the current owner to rehab and then sell it as an owner-occupied property, or the City would provide funding to the buyer to purchase it and then rehab it. Ms. Betcher asked if staff could provide an incentive in the form of money to the current owners of a rental house that doesn't need rehab work to place the deed restriction that it must be sold as owner-occupied and to sell in a certain amount of time. Mayor Haila confirmed that the Council does not want the City to buy the house and be involved in the rehab and resale.

Ms. Corrieri said affordable housing has been an issue for many years and not much has been done with it. She said she is not in favor of providing direct incentive for a seller if there is no rehab involved. Ms. Betcher said they need to restore the balance in neighborhoods. Ms. Beatty-Hansen said the ideal rentals that they would like to target are not the ones in great condition.

Moved by Betcher to provide reimbursement for rehabilitation work or down payment assistance to the buyer for rehabilitation work or direct incentive to the seller.
Motion failed for lack of second.

Mr. Martin said another issue is to prevent current owner-occupied homes from becoming rentals. Ms. Beatty-Hansen said the deed restriction covers that concern.

Moved by Nelson, seconded by Beatty-Hansen, to provide reimbursement for rehabilitation work or down-payment assistance to the buyer or reimbursement for rehabilitation work to the seller.

Mr. Gartin said he came to this discussion in support of a conversion, but now is not in support of this because of an email that was received with data that says rentals are more affordable now than they have been in the last 40 years. There have been broader market incentives to make these transactions happen, so he is not supportive at this time. People who are currently renting are going to be incentivized to convert anyway.

Vote on Motion: 5-1. Voting aye: Betcher, Martin, Nelson, Beatty-Hansen, Corrieri. Voting nay: Gartin. Motion declared carried.

Mr. Diekmann said staff needs to know if Council wants there to be a match requirement. Mr. Nelson asked if CDBG funds would be used for grants. Ms. Corrieri said no match requirement would be needed.

Ms. Betcher said there is a partnership program in Maryland for City employees and University faculty to live near campus. The University provides $15,000 and the City provides an additional $5,000 for the program. She suggested seeing if Iowa State University would be interested in a similar program if there is a near-campus neighborhood focus.

Mr. Diekmann confirmed that Council is interested in both affordable and market-rate housing and that they want near-campus neighborhoods to be the focus, not to re-evaluate the whole city. Mr. Schainker asked if it would be reasonable to have a report before February so staff can plan for the budget needs. Ms. Beatty-Hansen asked if Mayor Haila could write a letter to the Board of Realtors to suggest a database of potential sales. Mayor Haila said he will come up with a way of communicating that and bring it back to Council on November 12 for a motion to do something with it.

BROOKSIDE PARK RESTROOM RENOVATION PROJECT: Parks and Recreation Director Keith Abraham reviewed the project and the questions that came up at the last meeting. The current balance of the Park Development Fund is $715,000, which does not account for the cost of the restroom project for $81,000. Council Member Gartin wanted to know if that would affect anything on the horizon. Mr. Abraham said that balance has already taken out the cost of the projects that have recently been completed or are already planned. Rose Prairie park development is the only project not accounted for yet in the five year CIP, which is for $200,000. City Manager Schainker said the Park Development funds are usually used for new park land acquisition or new structures on playgrounds. He said $100,000 of funds gets replenished every year with Council's support. Ms. Betcher said it won't get any cheaper if they wait.

Mayor Haila opened public comment. Seeing none, he closed public comment.

Mr. Abraham clarified the term value engineering was used by the architect, but it was more for clarification on things like tuck-pointing. The scope of the project is not changing and they are not reducing things and staff needs to obtain clarification from the contractor to see if there is potential for savings. Mr. Schainker said Item C on the Agenda for this item can be removed altogether as it is something staff would normally do anyway.

Moved by Nelson, seconded by Gartin, to adopt RESOLUTION NO. 19-566 approving a contract with Henkel Construction Company from Mason City, Iowa, in the amount of $295,000.

Roll Call Vote: 6-0. Resolution declared adopted unanimously, signed by the Mayor, and hereby made a portion of these Minutes.

Ms. Betcher said they already discussed proration based on the construction already starting.

Moved by Betcher, seconded by Gartin, to direct staff to communicate with the applicant that Council is not interested in reconsidering the request.

Vote on Motion: 6-0. Motion declared carried unanimously.

COUNCIL COMMENTS:

Moved by Martin, seconded by Betcher, to direct staff to investigate current agreements with internet providers and indicate if use conditions can be imposed to require internet performance data reports.

Mr. Gartin said he agrees with the value of having this data and the goal is reasonable, but he is having trouble with the legal justification to obtain the data. Ms. Betcher said the purpose of the motion is to determine if it is legal.

MINUTES OF THE SPECIAL MEETING OF THE AMES CITY COUNCIL

AMES, IOWA

OCTOBER 23, 2019

The Special Joint Meeting of the Ames City Council and Iowa State University Student Government was called to order at 6:00 p.m. on the 23rd day of October, 2019, in the Campanile Room in the Memorial Union, Iowa State University. Mayor Haila, Council Members Bronwyn Beatty-Hansen, Gloria Betcher, Amber Corrieri, Tim Gartin, David Martin, and Chris Nelson, and ex officio Member Devyn Leeson were present.

It was announced that a Symposium on Inclusive Organizations, co-sponsored by the City of Ames, Ames Chamber of Commerce, and Iowa State University (ISU), will be held on October 29, 2019.

It was noted that the City's Ames Citizens Academy helps a cross-section of community members learn about City services.

Mayor Haila announced a new initiative, "Progressive Dinners," that is currently being discussed with Senior Vice-President for Operations and Finance Pam Cain. He also asked the Student Government what City Council can do to make them feel more welcome.

Council Member Nelson said the City participates in the Municipal Equality Index Scorecard.

Student Senator Ian Searles noted there is an initiative with ISU's Parks Library and the Office of Diversity and Inclusion to develop a permanent acknowledgment statement that the University settled on Native American land.

Ex officio Member Devyn Leeson asked the Student Body to voice concerns or ideas about the Inclusive Crosswalk.

Elena Hoffmann, Director of Diversity and Inclusion at ISU, noted that the Diversity and Inclusion Committee has received positive feedback from students. She noted that the Crosswalk was impactful and showed acceptance in the community.

Mayor Haila noted that the City Council is looking at adopting ISU's Principles of Community. Efforts will include co-branding and the development of language that is universal or applies off Campus.

Student Senator Sandeep Stanley referenced BYU's resolution. He noted that the LGBTQ community looks at Student Government's decisions and urged the Student Body to show support.

Council Member Gloria Betcher said a committee of those who attended the International Town and Gown Association 2019 Conference will be making a series of recommendations (including diversity and inclusion initiatives) to University leadership.

MICROMOBILITY - UNIVERSITY AND CITY REGULATIONS: Student Body President Vishesh Bhatia asked Mayor Haila to provide background information regarding scooters. Mayor

Haila deferred to Council Member Beatty-Hansen. Ms. Beatty-Hansen said she is interested in having scooters in Ames. She referenced the early model of scooter companies where they would come to a town and drop off scooters. Ms. Beatty-Hansen said companies are now more willing to work with cities to regulate scooters. She told the group that the City has formed a committee that includes ISU representation to explore the possibility of having scooters in Ames. Ms. Beatty-Hansen said the City has not committed to having scooters and asked for student input.

A student senator suggested the City look at its infrastructure. Another student noted it takes time to get from one area of Campus to another and that scooters might help. It was noted that some students have motorized scooters and other motorized vehicles on Campus already. It was also noted that the student sustainability committee is interested in scooters. Other concerns included bike lanes and accessibility.

Sandeep Stanley referenced the resolution ISU Student Government passed a year ago against scooters on Campus and noted that there might be enough support now to change the resolution.

Student Senator Crabb noted that the University of Milwaukee has hot spots for scooters that cut down on travel time. Mr. Leeson asked if the City can regulate scooters to a particular spot. Ms. Beatty-Hansen said scooter companies have means to regulate and hold users accountable including the issuance of fines.

CITY-WIDE INTERNET UTILITY: Mayor Haila deferred to Council Member Martin. Mr. Martin said ISU has had its own access to internet since the 1980's. He said that the City Council is trying to address internet issues off Campus. Mr. Martin said the City has received interest from a provider (Metronet) and that the Council has commissioned a feasibility study to see if the City can service internet users. Mayor Haila added that the City cannot regulate prices but it can offer incentives to fill gaps.

A student senator expressed support of municipally-owned internet. It was noted by another student senator that ISU will be upgrading its internet facilities in the next two to five years. This improvement will result in lower costs for students on Campus.

Mr. Leeson asked Mr. Martin to discuss the six values Council is interested in regarding internet service. Mr. Martin noted the Council is interested in availability, reliability, cost, speed, customer service, and policy (e.g. net neutrality, broadband privacy).

OPEN FORUM: Mayor Haila asked Mr. Nelson to address sustainability and Ms. Corrieri to address affordable housing.

Mr. Nelson noted that the City has moved from using coal to using natural gas, is conducting a greenhouse gas inventory, is obtaining electric buses, is looking to change how the Resource Recovery Plant processes waste, and has implemented waste reduction programs.

Ms. Corrieri told the group about the City's First-Time Homebuyer Assistance Program, ASSET, and Story County Housing Trust. She also noted that the City is looking to convert rental housing back to owner-occupied housing.

A student senator noted concerns with signage on 16th Street near Vet Med, Lincoln Way and Stanton Avenue, and University Boulevard and Haber Road.

Mayor Haila invited students to apply for the City's Boards and Commissions.

ADJOURNMENT: The meeting adjourned at 7:07 p.m.
